Allergy Advice & Dietray Information

We have listed the Allergens which are contained in our dishes. You will see an easy to follow key guide which determine which dishes have certain allergens. We have been awarded the Maximum level 5 award for Health & Hygiene. We follow good practice and staff are trained to avoid cross contamination. We cook all our dishes fresh to order, which gives us room to adapt some of the dishes. So if there is something that doesn't suit your requirements, please ask a member of staff.

Vegetarian Advice

We understand that there are different degrees of vegetarianism, most of our vegetarian dishes are suitable for Vegans. If you are unsure about anything, please ask a member of staff.

Gluten Free Advice

We do not use any flour or any thickening agents in any of our curries. Popadoms are made with Urid Flour (Black Lentils) and are deep fried in pure vegetable oil. Onion Bhajis & Vegetable Pakoras are made using Gram Flour (Chick Peas). However they are fried in the same oil as other items that contain Wheat Flour, which deems them unsuitable for coeliacs.

Nut Allergy Advice

Some of our ingredients are brought in from outside suppliers, although they do not contain nuts sometimes the packaging warns that it has been made or stored in the same factory that produces ingredients with nuts. We store nuts in our kitchen therefore there is always a chance of cross contamination, unfortunately we cannot guarantee that any of our dishes are nut free. If you are unsure about anything, please ask a member of staff.
